

Africa-American History Month Opening Ceremony

Combat Camera Camp Johnson, NC

Members of the Montford Point Marines Association and Ladies Auxiliary, Chapter 10, sit in attendance during the African-American History Month Opening Ceremony aboard Camp Johnson, N.C., Feb. 1, 2012. U.S. Marines and civilians gathered for the ceremony to emphasize the achievements of African-American women throughout American History. (U.S. Marine Corps photo by Sgt. Mark E. Morrow/Released)

Africa-American History Month Opening Ceremony

Combat Camera Camp Johnson, NC

U.S. Marine Corps Colonel Terri E. Erdag (right), Commanding Officer, Marine Corps Combat Service Support Schools, presents a gift to U.S. Marine Corps Master Gunnery Sergeant (RET) Sharon R. Garcia (left), during the African-American History Month Opening Ceremony aboard Camp Johnson, N.C., Feb. 1, 2012. U.S. Marines and civilians gathered for the ceremony to emphasize the achievements of African-American women throughout American History. (U.S. Marine Corps photo by Sgt. Mark E. Morrow/Released)

